

PrimeTime Business and Professional Women's Association Information regarding 2025-2026 Board nominees

We are pleased to announce our 2025-2026 Board nominees:

President – Dr Grace Chew

Dr Grace is a strategic business leader with over 33 years of international experience across industries such as aviation, hospitality, energy, and industrial services. She is the Founder and Executive Director of G Gianna Consultancy Pte Ltd, and currently serves as Senior Client Engagement Manager at RGP Management Consulting. Grace holds a PhD in International Business Management and is a faculty member at the European Institute of Management. A certified board director with the Singapore Institute of Directors, Grace has held multiple non-profit board roles, including her previous tenure as Volunteer Director at PrimeTime (2016–2018). Originally from Malaysia, she became a Singaporean citizen in 2008. Grace brings a strong commitment to inclusive leadership and mentoring, alongside a passion for arts, painting, marathon running, and cultural travel.

Joint Vice-President – Raisa Cervantes

Raisa brings over 7 years of experience in the energy sector, specializing in commodity trading, risk management, and market strategy. She has worked across Mexico and the U.S., collaborating with leading organizations such as Hartree Partners, CFE International, and CFEnergía.

With a strong background in decision-making, strategic planning, and leadership, Raisa has a proven track record of driving results through effective collaboration and innovative problem-solving. She is passionate about creating growth opportunities, building strong teams, and fostering impactful change. Raisa holds a BA in Economics and a Diploma in Energy Economics from ITAM, Mexico, and is committed to empowering women in business and promoting global connections.

A native Spanish speaker, Raisa is fluent in English and conversational in French and Portuguese. She thrives on working with diverse communities and sharing her expertise to create meaningful outcomes in dynamic environments.

Joint Vice-President – Megumi Yoshinaga

Megumi is a seasoned serial entrepreneur with a proven track record of successfully bootstrapping businesses across diverse regions, including the Middle East, Asia, North and South America. Her expertise lies in growth hacking and blitzscaling businesses on a global scale.

Founder of Arabian Mode, an empowering Arabic fashion show post-Arab Spring, Megumi has garnered awards for her visionary refugee assistance approach. As a Firework founding member, she secured $250 million from Silicon Valley venture capitals, expanding the app's global reach.

Megumi holds dual Bachelor's degrees from Waseda University and Peking University. Furthermore, she earned her Master's degree from Stanford University, where she was the Rotary Global Grant. Megumi's noteworthy achievements also include her representation as the youngest Japanese delegate at the G20 Summit in 2012 and the APEC CEO Summit in 2013, where she played a pivotal role in assisting Prime Minister Shinzo Abe in promoting the Tokyo Olympics.

Secretary ad interim: Anne Kariithi

Anne is a seasoned lawyer with over 15 years of experience, having been trained across three jurisdictions: England and Wales, Kenya, and the USA. Her expertise spans a diverse range of legal matters including contracts, business entities, investments, litigation, and arbitration.

Anne's dedication extends beyond her professional endeavours; she is deeply committed to advocacy work, particularly in the realm of women's rights and international law. Her passion for empowering underserved communities is evident through her involvement with NGOs and pro bono initiatives.

Outside of her legal career, Anne finds joy in exploring new destinations, indulging in baking adventures, and embracing the tranquility of the outdoors.

Treasurer - Glenna Goh

Glenna is a senior finance executive with over 26 years of experience in the IT and life sciences industries. She has led strategic finance, governance, and partnerships for Fortune 500 companies, and is an accredited director with the Singapore Institute of Directors.

She is also a certified leadership coach (ICF ACC), naturopath, and holistic wellness practitioner, integrating wellbeing into professional growth.

Glenna is passionate about empowering women through financial literacy, career development, and mentorship. She enjoys dancing, Pilates, and exploring Chinese metaphysics. She continues to explore new ways to support leadership and career development through her work with individuals and communities.

Volunteer and Membership Director - Louisa Lau

Louisa is a consultant with expertise in total rewards and organisation design. Her work focuses on job architecture, compensation frameworks, and benchmarking for global organisations.

With over a decade of experience as a certified Pilates instructor, she brings a unique mind-body approach to personal development. Louisa believes in the power of continuous growth and collaboration to create lasting impact.

Passionate about movement, the arts, and cultural exploration, Louisa enjoys travelling, attending ballets, musicals and the likes, as well as staying active through Pilates, yoga and long walks. She values quality time with friends and connecting with like-minded women in empowering communities.
